

The Lazy Brain

Emmeline and the Remote Control

A very silly story about a very special brain

Kind
Brave
Creative
You

For Emma — and her wonderfully complicated, occasionally grumpy, surprisnigly kind, completely extraordinary brain. ♥

Every morning,
Emmeline woke up grumpy.

Blanket, pillows, dream —
The world is far too noisy.
Five more minutes ...

But Mum was not always pleased.

"Emmeline, breakfast!"

"In a minute!"

"Emmeline, teeth!"

"In a minute!"

"Emmeline, turn off the television!"

That was the difficult one.

The Lazy Brain did not like this sentence at all.
